Welcome!
If this is your first visit to the Chapel or one of many, we welcome you to pray with us. You do not have to be Catholic to enjoy the quiet and serenity of this place and we pray that you will come back again and again for the peace that only He can give.

Do, then, bless the house of your servant that it may be before you forever; for you, Lord God, have promised, and by your blessing the house of your servant shall be blessed forever."
2 Samuel 7:29

✠ ✠ ✠

Bishop Alvaro del Portillo lived an unquestioned life of fidelity to God, carrying out His will promptly and generously; he lived fidelity to the Pope, his priesthood, and in his everyday life. He was born in Madrid in 1914. He earned doctorates in civil engineering, in History and in Canon Law. He joined Opus Dei in 1935 and was ordained a priest in 1944. St. Josemaria Escriva chose him as his confessor and assigned him to be Secretary of Opus Dei for two different terms, as well as many other offices. He diligently carried out many tasks assigned to him by the Holy See, including Consultor of the Pontifical Commission for the Revision of the Code of Canon Law. On September 15, 1975 he was elected as the first successor to St. Josemaria as head of Opus Dei. During his 19 years as head of Opus Dei, Alvaro del Portillo's pastoral zeal fostered the spread of apostolates of the faithful of the Prelature in the service of the Church to twenty new countries. He will be beatified on September 27, 2014 in Madrid, Spain. (Bulletin, Prelature of Opus Dei, 2013).
